

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact: Katharine Lau
Design At Work
832.200.8229
katharine@designatwork.com

Trucking, Freight Services Provider Welcomes New Safety Director
Steve Davis Joins Jetco Delivery

HOUSTON – JANUARY 10, 2012 – Jetco Delivery, a Houston-based trucking and freight services provider, proudly announces the addition of Steven Davis, C.F.S. as safety director. As part of his role, Davis will be responsible for the ongoing enforcement and compliance of the transportation regulations as stated in the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's (FMCSA) Regulations for Jetco's fleet of 90 trucks. His wide range of expertise and extensive education in fleet safety allows him to provide various operational improvements for all Jetco procedures, services, equipment and personnel.

Davis successfully completed the National Motor Transportation Certification Program for Fleet Safety, and also received his Directors Level Certification in Fleet Safety from the University of North Texas. He is experienced in managing: leasing and maintenance requirements, exempt and non-exempt logging procedures, accident and injury investigation, drug and alcohol programs, on-site and en-route security measures and continuing safety training and inspection programs to ensure compliance with OSHA regulations.

Davis is a member and past chairman of both the Houston Council of Safety Professionals and the Texas Motor Transportation Association. He is also a lifetime member of the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo Association and an active member of the parade committee. The Houston Council of Safety Professionals selected Davis as the Safety Professional of the Year, honoring him with the 2008 Joe Atkinson Award. He was also nominated in both 2009 and 2010 for the Texas Motor Transportation Association’s Distinguished Safety Award.

-more-

“With extensive education, background and experience, Steve has definitively established himself as an industry expert with great leadership and vision,” said Jetco CEO and President Brian Fielkow. “We’re thrilled for him to join Jetco and believe he will be a valuable asset in maintaining and building our commitment to safety.”

Jetco Delivery LLC is a premium provider of transportation and freight brokerage services. Jetco Delivery has a fleet of 100 trucks, ranging from small delivery to semi-trucks, and employs 130 people. For more information, contact Jetco Delivery at 713.676.1111 or visit jetcodelivery.com.

Photo Cutline: Jetco’s safety seal reflects the company’s commitment to safe operations above all else.

Photo Cutline: Steve Davis joins Jetco Delivery as the new safety director.

###